Local Briefs

HELD TO U. S. COURT—Charles M. Higgins yesterday was held to answer to the federal court on a charge of having a still in his possession, having set up and making whiskey without paying the federal license on the still or registering it with the internal revenue officers. He gave a cash bond of $500 for his appearance. Higgins was arrested recently with Burton Terrill and O. K. Boggs after the officers found them engaged in operating a still in a canyon 40 miles north of Phoenix near the New River. About three quarts of whiskey had been distilled when the officers arrived. Terrill and Boggs pleaded guilty to the charges and were held to answer to the federal court. They were committed to the county jail in lieu of bonds of $1000 each.

DR. LITTLE RETURNS—Dr. S. D. Little returned yesterday from the east, where he has been doing special work in surgical technique.

WILL LIVE IN CALIFORNIA—Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Horning and daughter left last night for Glendale, California, where they will locate permanently at 519 East Windsor road. Mr. Horning has been a resident of Phoenix for nearly 25 years and was in the real estate and insurance business here.

IN NEW POSITION—J. A. Galley, formerly with the Davis Realty company, is now connected with J. L. Stine and company. Mr. Galley will be manager of the city department and insurance.

LEAVES FOR EAST—Otto R. Hill of the Hill Investment company left yesterday for New York city in the interests of the Dos Oris mines. Mrs. Hill accompanied him as far as El Paso, Texas, where she will visit with relatives.

BOY MISSING—The sheriff's office has been asked to be on the lookout for Carleton Castello, a 14-year-old boy who left the home of S. A. Lindley, last Sunday. He is about 5 feet 4 inches in height, dark eyes, dark hair and was wearing short khaki pants, a white shirt and on hat when last seen. He was riding a blue bicycle with his name on the front of it. Any information as to his whereabouts would be appreciated by the sheriff's office or Mr. Lindley, 231 West Washington street, phone 1249.

TO ACT ON CAMP GROUND—The auto camp ground proposal of a special committee comprising members from every civic organization in Phoenix will probably be presented to the city commission today by City Manager Thompson. It was stated at the chamber of commerce yesterday.

TOWN MEETING TONIGHT—The first town meeting in Phoenix will be held tonight at the Woman's club. The meeting is called for 7:30 o'clock by the chamber of commerce, under whose auspices the meeting is to be held. All talks will be short. The discussion for the evening will be city hall and court hours. A buffet luncheon will be served. All are invited.

TROOP B SMOKER—Troop B, Arizona cavalry, will hold a "smoker" at the armory, 231 East Madison street, Tuesday evening, October 5, at 8 p. m. Drilling will be dispensed with for that week and plenty of smokes and eats will be provided for all. Not only will the men of the troop be present, but every man is asked to bring a friend along to enjoy the fun. Stunts will be pulled off and an original good time is promised. Anyone interested in joining the troop or in the work is cordially invited to be there.

KENNEL CLUB MEETS TONIGHT—A special meeting of the Copper State Kennel club will be held tonight at Judge Wheeler's office, East Monroe street. Very important business is to be transacted, and all members, and all persons interested, are urged to attend. The club has received premium lists and entry blanks for the dog show to be held at the state fair, and these will be given out tonight.

BAR EXAMINATION—The next examination of applicants for admission to the bar will be held by the board of law examiners at the capitol building on November 4, commencing at 9 o'clock.

MRS. LYMAN RETURNING—Mrs. Frank H. Lyman, 340 West Portland street, will return to Phoenix this morning after spending the summer in Los Angeles on the coast.

HEARING BEGUN—Hearing in the case of Reid against Evans and others for a judgment began yesterday in the court of Judge Lyman. The case was continued until 9:30 o'clock this morning at which time the hearing will be resumed.

WILL BECOME CHIEF—Officer Smith of Tempe will assume duties as chief of police of the south side city the first of October.

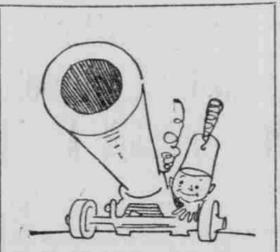

WERE READY TO RETURN—Tiring of the restrictions of conventionality, six Indian school girls deserted their dormitory for an open air life along the banks of Salt river last Monday night. They were found by Officer Smith yesterday morning and expressed a willingness to desert the school to-nature movement for the comfortable beds and good food of the school.

A. A. BETTS RECOVERING—A. A. Betts, chairman of the corporation commission, who suffered a nervous breakdown in August, is regaining his health and will be on duty in another two weeks, according to information given out at the state house yesterday. Mr. Betts suffered a severe attack of typhoid fever last summer and returned to his desk before he had sufficiently recovered to stand the strain of office work.

HERE FOR CONFERENCE—Robert Keller of the Cranton Correspondence School of vocational education, was in Phoenix yesterday for a general conference with James E. Ryan, supervisor of trades and industries of the state's department of vocational education.

ISSUE CERTIFICATES—Certificates of election have been issued by the secretary of state, the action having been taken immediately after the official count. E. E. McGillen, assistant secretary, stated yesterday that all the certificates had been received by the local candidates who were successful at the September primary election, the certificates having been forwarded by registered mail to out-of-town candidates for state office.

HERE FOR WINTER—After a several months' absence abroad Mrs. C. O. Ellis and Miss Margaret Ellis arrived in Phoenix yesterday and will spend the winter here. Mrs. Ellis, who was a former resident of Douglas, is a sister of Mrs. Henry D. Ross with whom at whose home on North Central avenue she and her daughter are being entertained.

GRANT APPLICATION—The corporation commission yesterday granted the application of the Globe Light and Power company for permission to increase its rates, to become effective October 1.

PAYS FINE TO CITY—Ira Kersh paid a $5 fine for violating a city traffic ordinance when he appeared before Judge Frank Thomas in police court. He was charged with cutting an intersection on the inside of a dummy.

CAN SELL STOCK—The Flux Mining company was authorized by the corporation commission to sell 40,000 shares of its treasury stock at 15 cents a share. The property of the company is located in the Starshaw mining district in Santa Cruz county.

RETURNS TO OFFICE—Mrs. Clifford Carpenter, a former employe in the office of the state superintendent of public instruction, is again on duty after a several months' absence in Troy, where Mr. Carpenter is engaged in mining. Before her marriage to an engineer Mrs. Carpenter was Miss Elizabeth Pruitt, a sister of the famous Arizona war hero in whose memory a warship was recently christened.

CASE IS DISMISSED—On motion of the counsel for the plaintiff, Judge Lyman issued an order on Sept. 18 dismissing the suit of Granville Fair against Benjamin Satran asking for a temporary order restraining the latter from trespassing on the premises under lease to the former or from intimidating or in any way interfering with his servants and employes in picking cotton. The suit was filed on Sept. 15 and Judge Lyman issued a temporary order enjoining Satran at that time. The case came up for a hearing on Sept. 18 for Satran to show cause why the order should not be issued with the result that counsel for Fair requested the dismissal of the suit.

WIFE ASKS DIVORCE—Declaring that her husband was addicted to the use of some drug, the name of which she does not know, and charging that while under its influence he was extremely cruel, Edith Peral Olinger yesterday brought suit for a decree of divorce from Ernest Guy Olinger charging desertion. "She alleges he struck her on numerous occasions and threw her across the room. He continually threatened to leave her, she says, and finally did so. She asks for a decree, the custody of their child and $25 a month for its support. They were married Aug. 19, 1915, she says.

CHARGED WITH SPEEDING—Two persons charged with violating the speed laws appeared before Justice McKee yesterday on complaint of Motorcycle Officer C. L. Dena. The first was B. W. Ginsburg, who pleaded guilty to speeding past the Osborn school on North Central avenue and was fined $10. The second was H. G. McQuiston, who pleaded not guilty to a charge of speeding on North Central avenue and was released on his own recognizance to appear for trial on Sept. 30.

WOULD ADMINISTER ESTATE—Petition for letters of administration was filed yesterday in the estate of Mary E. Kay, who died in Maricopa county May 29, 1920, by the husband, George R. Kay. The estate consists of real property in Maricopa county to which the petitioner gives the value of $2500. The petition will be heard on Monday afternoon, Oct. 11, at 1:30 o'clock.

THESE WILL MARRY—Licenses to marry were issued yesterday to Reuben K. Wood, 33, and Gladys C. Clanton, 35, both of Palo Verde; Joseph H. Matthews, 41, and Florence Hope Chapelle, 21, both of Phoenix; Eugene Navarro, 20, of Casa Grande, and Manuela Padron, 18, of Goodyear; Simon D. Cox, 23, and Etta Mae Weather, 18, both of Phoenix; and Alejo Ramero, 40, and Felicitia Rodriguez, 35, both of Mesa.

UNITES TWO COUPLES—Justice Nat T. McKee performed two marriage ceremonies yesterday in his office. The first couple to appear before the judge for his sanction to their union was Everett J. Bryant and Natallina Eastman, two young folk from Casa Grande. They were married by Justice McKee and shortly afterward Reuben K. Wood and Gladys C. Clanton of Palo Verde appeared in the office of the justice and were married.

HUSBAND SEEKS DECREE—After threatening many times to leave him, Frank P. Steyerer says in his suit for a decree for a divorce from his wife, she left him in December, 1919, and went to Los Angeles to live, taking their child with her. In the spring of 1920, he says, he went to Los Angeles and they became reconciled. She promised to return with him to Phoenix, he states, but never kept the promise. Instead, he declares, she would leave home and remain away three and four days at a time. He alleges she told him she knew men who had money and would spend it. They were married in Phoenix, June 17, 1917, he says.
